Neil Meltzer Elected to Maryland Hospital Association Executive Committee

Elkridge, Md. – Neil Meltzer, President & CEO of LifeBridge Health, was elected to the Maryland Hospital Association's (MHA's) Executive Committee during a membership meeting June 2. He joined Sinai Hospital in 1988 as vice president of operations, and became president and chief operating officer of Sinai Hospital and senior vice president of LifeBridge Health in 1998. He became president and chief executive officer of LifeBridge Health in July 2013.

Meltzer serves on the boards of the Greater Baltimore Committee and Notre Dame of Maryland University. He is a member of the Baltimore City Workforce Investment Board. The governor of Maryland acknowledged Meltzer's contributions by appointing him chairman of the state's Workforce Investment Board Health Care Committee. He also serves as a member of the International Relief & Development Advisory Board.

Mr. Meltzer has also served on the American Heart Association-Baltimore & Mid-Atlantic Chapter Board of Directors from 1995-2005. He was appointed Chairman of the Advocacy Committee of the National Board of Directors and was appointed to serve as National Chairman of the American Heart Association for 2009-2010. He continues to serve on several committees and is currently the Chairman of the Compensation & Benefits.

Meltzer will serve a one-year term on the Executive Committee, after which he will be eligible for re-election to two additional one-year terms in this position. The Executive Committee is MHA's highest policymaking body and has the authority for most decisions, activities and functions. The committee is composed of both hospital executives and hospital trustees, elected annually by the MHA Board of Trustees.
